“Ecosystem Restoration for Sustainable Development”

A Report

On 31 July 2021, Government Degree College Indora organized an enlightening webinar titled “Ecosystem Restoration for Sustainable Development,” chaired by Prof. R. K. Jamwal, with Prof. SubhakantaMahapatra as the keynote speaker. Prof. Mahapatra's presentation focused on the critical role of ecosystem restoration in achieving sustainable development goals. He detailed various restoration strategies, the benefits of revitalizing ecosystems, and the importance of integrating these practices into broader environmental policies. The webinar explored successful case studies and provided actionable insights into how ecosystem restoration can address environmental degradation and enhance biodiversity. The session was highly engaging, with Prof. Mahapatra's expertise offering valuable perspectives on the intersection of ecosystem health and sustainable development. Around Two twenty five attendees attended the webinar.

Sustainable Development
A Report

On September 4, 2021, Government Degree College Indora hosted a compelling webinar titled “Sustainable Thinking to Challenge the Climate Crisis: A Contemplation on Sustainable Development,” featuring Dr. Tapas Pal as the key speaker. Dr. Pal addressed the urgent need for sustainable development to combat the climate crisis, emphasizing the integration of environmental protection, social equity, and economic growth. He showcased innovative solutions and successful case studies, while also discussing the challenges and barriers to sustainability. The session highlighted the importance of education and public awareness in fostering a culture of sustainability, culminating in a call to action for participants to adopt and advocate for sustainable practices in their own lives. The event was well-received, with interactive discussions and insightful contribution from attendees. Around Two twenty attendees attended the webinar.
